Preparing Behavioral Health Organizations for Coronavirus

Date: Friday, March 20, 1-2 p.m. ET

An outbreak of a new strain of coronavirus, 2019-nCoV or COVID-19, presents an ongoing health threat across the globe. Join the National Council for Behavioral Health and the Joint Commission on March 20 from 1-2 p.m. for a co-hosted webinar, “Preparing Behavioral Health Organizations for Coronavirus.” This timely webinar will provide an overview of the spectrum of clinical presentations of coronavirus and specific suggestions for decreasing the risk of transmission in the behavioral health setting.

At this webinar you will gain:

- The most up-to-date information available regarding signs and symptoms of the COVID-19 virus.
- Best practices in infection control and reducing transmission specifically tailored for community mental health centers and drug and alcohol treatment centers and their staff.

Register Today - Space is limited

The Joint Commission is a member of the National Council.